Governor Musgrove:

Dear Govenor Muskgrove,

My name is Glenda Cox. I live in Pelahatchie . I am getting very upset with the city of Jackson. Tis is really getting to be a joke. They could not give more than 5,000 dollars to Byram for a new school. But now they are going to spend 9 million dollars to RENNOVATE the Jackson police department. Now my husband is a framer and there is now way it should cost 9 million to rennovate any building. The children are the future of our communities and their education and well being should be top priority no matter what. And I think that Jackson is a laughing stock right now.Because they would rather patch and remend a building that is toatally delapadated and needs to be re built 1 It is cheaper to rebuild than it is to rennovate.2 They are showing the children in Byram that because they are kids they are unimportant.3 that if you don't win change the rules to where you do . Please ! HELP The kids get what they need and desirve. A new school.

Thank you for your time. Glenda Cox

Sincerely,

Glenda Cox
